star in a motion picture version of "The Man Who Came Back," to be started in September. Mr. Crane will star in the new production of "Personality" next season.

George Broadhurst has engaged Chrystal Herne and Charles Waldron to head the cast of "The Elton Case." s new play of to-day by William Devereux, which will be presented for the first time at the Broadway Theater, Long Branch, July 4. Miss Herne will be remembered for her fine work as the wife in "The Acquittal" last season. Mr. Waldron recently was seen in "Mary Stuart" and prior to that production in "The Passion Flower." where his work was unusually distinctive. "The Elton Case" will be staged under the direction of Mrs. Trimble Bradley, general stage director for Mr.

Previncetown Players" Summer Performances

The New York Play-Actors, an erganization of members of the theatrical profession who are spending their vacations in Provincetown, Mass., will begin a season of performances at the Town Hall there on Monday, June 27. On that date they will appear for the benefit of the fund for the improvement of the building just bought by the Provincetown Art Association, and he performance will be given under e auspices of the Association, of which Will H. Young is president. The Play-Actors are under the management of Frederick McKay, with Douglas J. Wood for stage director. Eileen Van Biene, of "Maytime," will be the leading woman, and Sydney Booth will share with Mr. Wood the chief masculine rôles. One performance each week will be given, with a complete change of bill, the scredule including thrillers, comedies and farces, most of them new plays.

Michio Ito, the Japanese dancer, with his special assisting artists will be seen at the Princess Theater Wednesday and Thursday evenings, in a series of character, interpretative and classical dances. The music accompaniments, rendered by J. M. D'Acugna, represent the composers of all nations, from Cyril Scott to Yamada.

Although the present success of "Lillom" and "Mr. Pim Passes By" does not seem to indicate an early end of their current season, the Theater Gulld has already decided on two plays for the opening of the new season at the Garrick Theater in the autumn. The first one they will present will be "Ambush," by Arthur Richman, author of "Not So Long Ago." It is a drama of American life with the scene laid in Jersey City. This will be followed by "The Devil's Disciple," by Bernard Shaw. The date for the opening has not been announced, but it will probably be early in October. The Theater Build offers its subscribers five bills each year. Late in the season Shaw's Back to Methuselah" will be produced. but the other plays have not yet been
